Course Description:
This class surveys important and representative works of British literature in their historical and cultural contexts. It begins by exploring the literature of the Elizabethan period (1558–1603), during which Shakespeare's main dramas will be read and discussed. In the Romantic periods (1785–1832), six plays by William Shakespeare, and the poems by William Wordsworth, P.B. Shelley, John Keats, William Blake, Alfred Tennyson, and Christina Rossetti will be appreciated. From the authors in the middle of the 19th century, Charles Dickens, Jane Austen, Emily Brontë, and Lewis Carroll will be chosen. The course concludes by exploring modern British Literature, such as Thomas Hardy, George B. Shaw, E.M. Forster, and Oscar Wilde. Throughout the course we will concern ourselves with temporality (chronological, discontinuous, in medias res) and how it functions in the literary texts that we encounter.

Required Materials:

All the literary excerpts used in the class will be given by the professor.

Course Policies (Attendance, etc.):

Attendance, as such, is not part of the final grade – BUT participation is!

Late homework will not be accepted, unless the student has an official reason (absence) preventing the student from submitting the homework on time.

Since the work we do in this course is cumulative, your attendance is important. Regular class attendance is required. Students with more than 5 unexcused absences will be asked to withdraw from the class. Excused absences are those that are defined as a confining illness, death in the family, or school-sanctioned event. For an absence to be excused, you need to have written documentation from a doctor or campus-organization sponsor.

Please come to class on time. Repeated lateness will be considered an unexcused absence and not only affect participation points and final grade but also your status in the class.

3 Times late = 1 absence

> 30 minutes late = 1 absence

Class Preparation and Review:

Students are expected to spend at least one hour reviewing and doing homework and one hour preparing for every hour of lesson time.

Grades and Grading Standards:

Grades will be determined as follows:

Written Assignments	40 %
Group Discussion	10 %
Presentations	20 %
Exams (Midterm and Final)	30 %

*Warning: Students who have not submitted all the written assignments are not allowed to take the final examination.

Methods of Feedback:

In principle, graded work will be returned within one week of submission with appropriate feedback, i.e., grade, comments, etc. Some written work will be graded and commented upon electronically.

Diploma Policy Objectives:

Work completed in this course helps students achieve the following Diploma Policy objective(s):

1. Advanced thinking skills (comparison, analysis, synthesis, and evaluation) based on critical thinking (critical and analytic thought)
2. The ability to understand and accept different cultures developed through acquisition of a broad knowledge and comparison of the cultures of Japan and other nations
3. The ability to identify and solve problems
4. Advanced communicative proficiency in both Japanese and English
