STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES:

- If you do not attend a class during add/drop week for unexcused reasons, your place may be given to a waitlisted student.
- You must pay for your textbook and provide your own study supplies.
- You must do your own work. Copying from classmates, use of AI, translation software, etc. will earn an F grade.
- You are expected to inform the instructor in advance if you must miss a class. If you miss a class, you are expected to obtain missing materials and catch up by talking to other students and the instructor as soon as possible.
- Excused absence from class (in case of illness or family emergency) requires a written notice from Student Affairs within 7 days. All other absences from class will be considered “unexcused”. Missed quizzes/tests require excused absence for makeup.
- If you are not in the classroom when the instructor takes attendance, you will be marked as late. 3 late attendances = 1 absence. 30 min late = 1 absence. 4 or more unexcused absences can earn a grade of F (Fail).
- Assignments completion: It is your responsibility to attend all classes, to participate actively as a member of the class, and to complete and hand in all assigned work as required to pass this course.

LEARNING ENVIRONMENT:

- I will make efforts to address the different learning styles of students in the class. There will be a combination of whole-class activities, individually based activities, small group work, and lecture.
- Students and instructors will work together to create a safe learning environment for everyone. Harassment or bullying will not be tolerated.
- This course will aim to follow the OECD Learning Compass 2030.

REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS:

- It is our goal that all students have an effective learning environment. Please let me know all necessary accommodations needed to make the class fully accessible as soon as possible so needs can be met.

The instructor reserves the right to make changes to this syllabus at any time.
